

Scene Outline

Scene 1: INT. LIBRARY – SHELF REMAINS - EVENING

Athena Oakhall wakes up in confusion circled by flames. Someone is holding onto her and carrying her somewhere. The guy claims he is Casper, a librarian who works there. He wants to take you to the office to get medical aid. Athena is injured and Casper claims he has used his clothing to wrap up her injuries.

Scene 2: INT. LIBRARY – AISLES-EVENING

As Casper drags Athena through the aisles of the library, she begins to try and grasp the reality around her through her drowsiness.

Scene 3: EXT. FOREST- NIGHT(FLASHBACK)

Athena is transported into a forest as she loses consciousness. She is escaping from something at night. She gets memories of her mother dying in front of her. She clutches on to a precious leatherbound book. She feels a cold touch from her sister who is about to say something before being cut off.

Scene 4: INT. LIBRARY-AISLES-NIGHT-REALITY)

Athena wakes up to Casper shaking her and yelling for her to wake up. He reveals that the rebels who set the library on fire are nearby and they should hurry. She sees a silhouette and hears some yells but is unable to figure out who it is.

Scene 5: INT.LIBRARY – STAIRCASE-NIGHT

Casper helps Athena climb up the stairs of the Library. While they make their way up the stairs, Casper begins to talk to Athena about his brother Charles who is part of a cult known as the AntiKnow which rejects the need for knowledge. While Athena listens, she begins to dissociate. Casper also asks her questions and Athena tells the lie she always has for her whole life.

Scene 6: INT.LIBRARY-SECOND FLOOR-NIGHT

Athena collapses from tiredness on the second floor, and tells Casper faintly they should take a break. Casper mentions how he is also tired and so they stop to take rest for a bit. Athena doses off into another dream.

Scene 7: INT. LIBRARY- ATHENA’S OFFICE- AFTERNOON (FLASHBACK)

Athena is in her office reading through her precious leatherbound book when a knock on the door happens. Her sister who is also her assistant now enters to introduce the new employee at the library whose name is Casper. She greets him and leads him out to give a tour of the place. Athena then wakes up from the flashback.

Scene 8: INT.LIBRARY- SECOND FLOOR-NIGHT(REALITY)

Athena wakes up in a shiver and sees Casper is sleeping. She decides to try and get up to escape. She realizes her leg is fine, there is an ache but it is not damaged. She rushes down the stairs.

Scene 9:INT.LIBRARY-GROUND FLOOR-NIGHT

Athena tries to make her way through the debris and smoke. She notices the silhouette from before, however they are not moving. She goes to see who it is and sees it is a dead body in ripped librarian clothes. It is Casper. The person who she had been with was his twin who had been impersonating him. Athena feels something heavy hit her already aching head. She is knocked out.

Scene 10: INT.LIBRARY- ATHENA'S OFFICE-NIGHT

Athena wakes up to see she is tied to a chair. Charles reveals that he knows her true identity and how she had escaped the cult he now belongs to , the AntiKnow. Athena is too drowsy and knocks out again. Charles reveals he knocked her out the first time and had taken his brother's place in an elaborate plan with her sister, who was still connected to the cult.

Scene 11: INT. LIBRARY-ATHENA'S OFFICE- AFTERNOON (FLASHBACK)

Athena is at the edge of the stairs waiting to introduce Casper to the library. She turns to give a smile to her sister. Her sister is frowning. Athena's expression turns to confusion before she is pushed down the stairs by both Charles and her sister.

Scene 12: INT. LIBRARY-ATHENA'S OFFICE- NIGHT (REALITY)

Athena tricks Charles into finding a hidden safe with most of her riches. She pulls out the leather book from the bookcase, revealing the trapdoor. Charles enters, believing he is stumbling upon her riches.

Scene 13: INT.LIBRARY -BURNING FLOOR-NIGHT

Charles is trapped on a burning floor, ambushed by the flames and debris. He has no way out. He bangs at the trapdoor pleading for his life.

Scene 14: INT. LIBRARY-ATHENA'S OFFICE-NIGHT

Athena does not react to the pleas for mercy. She takes the book and leaves her office.

Scene 15: INT.LIBRARY- GROUND FLOOR – DAWN

Athena finds the corpse of Charles and reads him a passage from the book. Then, she places the book in the tuck of his arm and respectfully shuts his eyes. She then walks away.